looked like the good old days n at the Polo Grounds yesterday moon. The old "Tiger" of Prince-which had not boomed against the ton, which had not boomed against the cliffs of Coogan's Bluff since 1908, once more resounded across the Harlem meadow. Again Princeton sent a pow-erful football team into the fray and it clawed up the strong eleven from Camp typen. The Jersey pigakin gladiators reped through the Upton contingent like of fashioned sons of Old Nassau, and piled up a victory by a score of 28 to 7. The boys from Jungletown did all their scoring in the first half.

The game was one of the feature events of the big sport drive of the United War Work Campaign, and had its ful quota of military trimmings and trappings. The "Tiger" brought back memories of the Palmer Stadium and University Field in the days before the Valuer chillenged Lucia Sam to those taiser challenged Uncle Sam to throw

The Tigers were too alert for their sot distributions and the fact that tipten's team included veterans of many big football tilts of the past. The old Princeton trick of snatching up the other fellow's football and running it into a touchdown was much in evidence. The game was only two minutes old whee Harvey, the Nassau end, picked up a ball fumbled by Capt, Davis of the liptes outfit and ran forty yards for a
